कान्हा Kanha

The Kalinga Collection of Lord Krishna on Coins, Tokens & Medals

Krishna (fondly called, Kanha), probably the most beloved of the divine figures for Hindus, is revered as the 8th Avatar (incarnation) of Lord Vishnu, the preserver of the universe. His life and teachings, as chronicled in the Mahabharata and the Bhagavad Purana, embody timeless values of love, wisdom, and dharma (righteousness).

Born in Mathura to Vasudeva and Devaki, Krishna's early life is filled with miraculous tales. As a child, he charmed the people of Gokul with his mischievous yet divine acts, such as stealing butter and subduing demons sent by King Kansa. His playful and endearing relationship with the gopis, particularly Radha, symbolizes pure and selfless love, transcending the material world.

Krishna's role in the Mahabharata is profound, particularly during the Kurukshetra war. Serving as a charioteer to Arjuna, he imparted the wisdom of the Bhagavad Gita, emphasizing the importance of performing one's duty without attachment to results. His teachings on karma, devotion, and self-realization have inspired millions across the ages and remain a guiding light in navigating life's challenges.

Beyond his divine attributes, Krishna is also celebrated for his pragmatic approach to life. His strategies during the Mahabharata War exemplify his deep understanding of human nature and his commitment to upholding dharma. Krishna's life teaches balance - between duty and compassion, action and introspection, and the material and the spiritual. His life and teachings remain relevant, offering profound insights into the essence of life.

It gives me immense pleasure cataloguing such a themed and beautiful collection built over last 20 years and more by an advanced coin collector. This is an eclectic collection of only 50 items selected for their rarity and beauty traversing the entire life span of Krishna since his infancy to his rendition of the Bhagavad Gita in the battle field. The collection contains many rarities including medallions issued by foreign mints such as the New York Gold Company (NYGC), Birmingham Mint, Perth Mint, Swiss mint, Royal Mint, etc.

The collection also includes medals issued on Krishna's other two famous forms, viz. Shrinath ji of Nathdwara and Jagannath ji of Puri. And last but not the least, it contains some rare coins of Mediavel South India and foreign countries. The collection is a treat for the eye. This is one of its kind collection to be featured in any Indian auction and I am sure it will be enjoyed by one and all.

Enjoy the Kanha Collection !
